Investment Thesis

Bridging Global Capital with India's Growth

India presents a significant opportunity driven by:

- Rapid economic growth
- Strong real estate and infrastructure demand
- Increasing need for structured financing

VTMC delivers an integrated platform combining:

- Global capital
- Structured investments
- Built-in exit via NRI demand

About VTMC

Valentine Mark Corporation is a U.S.-based publicly listed company (OTC), focused on global trade, finance, and investment structuring.

Core Focus:

- Building a scalable U.S.–India investment platform
- Connecting global investors with Indian opportunities

Network Strength:

- Institutional investors
- Global Indian diaspora (NRI)
- Strategic partners

Vision:
To become a leading gateway for global capital into India

Market Opportunity – India

- Expanding real estate and infrastructure sectors
- Increasing urbanization and housing demand
- Improved regulatory environment

Key Gaps:

- Limited institutional capital access
- High financing costs for developers
- Lack of flexible funding structures

VTMC Platform Model

Capital + Structuring + Exit

VTMC integrates three key components:

1. Capital Access
Global investor network

2. Structured Investments
Secured, risk-mitigated deal structures

3. NRI Exit & Distribution Engine
Access to 32M+ global diaspora for:

- Pre-sales
- Secondary exits

Outcome: Faster capital rotation and reduced exit risk
